

The value of multiple independent news sources to the citizens of a democracy greatly outweighs the economic value of consolidation to corporations. Please do not expand the number of broadcast stations any one organization, person or family may own or control.